Max Estates achieves Dual 5-Star Rating in GRESB 2026 for the second consecutive year; ranks No. 1 among GRESB-defined peer entities in Development Category

- Max Estates achieved a Dual 5-Star Rating in GRESB for the second consecutive year, with its highest score of 100/100 in Development and 93.5/100 in Standing Investments.
- Max Estates secured the No. 1 rank among its GRESB-defined predefined peer group in the Development category.
- The dual 5-Star Rating places Max Estates in the top quintile of entities participating in the GRESB Real Estate Assessment globally.

Noida, October 01, 2026: Max Estates Limited (Max Estates), a leading real estate developer in the NCR, has achieved a Dual 5-Star Rating in the 2026 GRESB Real Estate Assessment, with a score of 100/100 in the Development category and a score of 93.5/100 in Standing Investments.

In the Development category, Max Estates ranked No. 1 among its GRESB-defined predefined peer group of six entities comprising listed residential real estate entities in India. The Company also received a 5/5 GRESB Rating in both Development and Standing Investments. The dual 5-Star Rating places Max Estates in the top quintile of entities participating in the GRESB Real Estate Assessment globally.

Max Estates has emerged among the top 20% of entities participating in the GRESB Real Estate Assessment globally. Since its establishment in 2016, the Company has steadily embedded sustainability and well-being into its approach to real estate development. Having participated in GRESB since 2022, Max Estates has progressively strengthened its sustainability performance and disclosures, reflecting the progress made in building an institutionally driven ESG framework and integrating Environmental, Social and Governance considerations across its business and development philosophy.

Max Estates' ESG initiatives are deeply anchored in its LiveWell and WorkWell philosophy. Its ESG approach spans the real estate lifecycle, from design and development to operations, with a focus on creating sustainable, resilient and well-being-led spaces for stakeholders.
