Dear Mr. Prasad,

After giving sincere and deep consideration and also taking into account the non-alignment of Dr. Ellen Feehan as the CEO, with whom I was supposed to synergize and team up, I hereby submit my resignation from all the roles and responsibilities I have been offered and assigned in M/s PVP Ventures Limited (Evervie Health Limited) as well as other group entity concerns. Though tough, this decision is taken considering above change in leadership structure, differentials in leadership styles and cultures and operating model given my domicile requirements.

My sincere hope is that this decision will be a mutually beneficial one, whereby, the company can have an aligned leadership team with the aligned culture on one hand and I can strike a chord between my professional pursuit as well as personal demands (via-a-vis family in the United States).

In view of the above, I request that this mail may please be taken as my official resignation from all the roles and responsibilities across the company and group entity concerns, including participation in the Board.

I have also returned the official vehicle today and keys were handed over to by driver Mr. Manikandan and received by Chennai team.

I request my resignation may please be taken on record with immediate effect and I truly thank you for the opportunity and deeply appreciate the understanding.

Sincerely,

Dr. Neeraja Nagarajan
