Annexure-I

Brief details of the amendments to the Memorandum of Association (''MOA") of the Company
The existing MOA of the Company was based on erstwhile Companies Act, 1956, and Objects specified under Clause III of MOA was divided into three parts i.e. (A) The Main objects to be pursued by the Company on its Incorporation, (B) The objects incidental or ancillary to the attainment of the above main objects, and (C) The other objects for which Company is established. Pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, read with Table A of Schedule I, the Objects specified under Clause III of MOA should be divided into two parts i.e. (A) The objects to be pursued by the Company on its incorporation and (B) Matters which are necessary for furtherance of the objects specified in clause III(A). Accordingly, it was proposed to adopt a revised set of MOA, in alignment with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 by merging the existing Clause III(C) into Clause III(B) and renumbering the clauses accordingly, without affecting the existing objects of the Company, subject to the approval of the Members of the Company by way of Postal Ballot. Further, to enable the Company to undertake the new business activities, it was also proposed to amend the Clause III(A) i.e. "The objects to be pursued by the company on its incorporation" by inserting new objects under Clause III(A) after existing sub-clauses. In addition to the above, the new set of MOA incorporates changes in the liability clause and capital clause to align the constitutional document of the Company with the provisions and requirements of the Companies Act, 2013.
